JUDGES

ROBERT DAWSON

Mr. Robert (Bob) Dawson is an Australian who has worked in the Asia and the Pacific region for nearly 30 years. He is currently a senior executive with the Asian Development Bank, a multilateral finance institution, with headquarters in Manila, Philippines. Mr. Dawson has been a Director on the Board of the Philippine Canine Club Inc., (PCCI) the parent canine body in the Philippines and is a life member of that organization

In dogs he has concentrated on Pugs, Boston Terriers, Miniature Dachshund, Basenji, Whippets and English Bulldogs, breeding and campaigning many to their Philippine Grand Champions and Champions. He has also made-up AKC Champions in basenjies, pugs and poodles. He is active in the show ring and has won a number of Best in Shows with his dogs. His kennel prefix is "Kawana".

Mr. Dawson judges all-breeds under the Philippine Canine Club Inc., list of breeds. He has judged on all six continents and holds all-breed status under both FCI and the Asian Kennel Union. He has judged extensively in Australia and New Zealand; South Africa, Brazil, several countries in Europe including Finland, Switzerland, Latvia, Ireland, Russia, Germany, England, and Sweden; in the United States and Canada, and in most of the countries in Asia including India, Thailand, Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, Republic of China, and Japan as well as in all of the major centers in the Philippines. He judges around 60 shows each year. He has officiated at many specialty shows, as well as Dog of the Year competitions in Australia, South Africa, Europe, and Asia.

SHIRLEY LIMOGES

Shirley D Limoges began showing dogs in her early teens as a protégé of her Uncle, John J Farmer, a Past President of the Canadian Kennel Club and All Breed Judge. Mr Farmer was a hound breeder. From that beginning, she began to breed and show Pugs, handling all of her dogs herself, with considerable success at all breed and specialty shows both in Canada and the United States. A number of those Pugs went to foreign countries as breeding stock.

Mrs. Limoges served on the Board of Directors and on the Executive Committee of her local Humane Society for many years. She is a founding member of the Kars Community Association, one of the local breed clubs, and a founding member of The Bytown Obedience Club, the first local obedience club, where she served as Director and President. Mrs. Limoges trained and handled her German Shepherd dog to his Utility degree.

Mrs Limoges began judging dogs in 1975 and has, since that time, officiated at shows in many countries of the world.

JAMES REYNOLDS

Mr. Reynolds has been involved in the sport of dogs since 1956. As a breeder he was most involved with Scottish Terriers and his Renaldo kennel owned or bred over 30 Canadian and 15 American champions many of whom were Best in Show Winners. He began judging in 1967 and became an all-breed judge in the early seventies. He judges all breeds in Canada and has been permitted to judge all breeds by the AKC in the United States. His assignments have been in five continents and have included judging Best in Show at some of the most prestigious clubs including Best in Show at Westminster in 2006, Best in show at the anniversary show of the Ladies Kennel Association in England and Best in Show at Australia's largest show

"The Melbourne Royal". He has also officiated at World Shows in Switzerland and Germany. He has had the great good fortune to officiate at over 60 national specialties in the U.S.A. He has judged for many years in Central and South America and in addition to the first Golden Retriever National in Brazil in 2008 he has judged in Argentina and Guatemala during 2009

He has judged frequently in Asia including shows in China, Hong Kong, Japan, Thailand and Korea. Some of the special shows of 2009 include Westminster, Buenos Aires, the nationals for Manchester Terriers, Miniature Schnauzers and Irish Wolfhounds with an entry of 248. The year ended with the AKC Eukanuba shows in Long Beach and begins with another assignment at Westminster. He is particularly looking forward to returning to judge at the International Kennel Club show and to judging BIS. This will be followed in March with the CKC Charity show, Louisville and Argentina.

LESLIE ROGERS

Leslie Rogers has been involved in dogs 1960. Breeding most notably Shetland Sheepdogs and Pomeranians under the Forever permanently registered prefix. He has also bred Papillons and Shiba Inu. Mr Rogers started judging in 1965. He has judged in Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Hong Kong, Mexico, New Zealand, and USA.

NANCY HOWARD

Nancy has been involved in the sport of dog obedience for over 20 years and has been totally hooked on Rally Obedience since the sport was introduced. She has instructed hundreds of students over the years and is very excited to add Rally O to her teaching program. Nancy purchased her first dog, a sheltie in the early 80's and since then has trained, Shetland Sheepdogs, Bouviers, Soft Coated Wheaten Terriers and Australian Shepherds in Obedience, Conformation and Rally Obedience. They have all taught her something different and she wouldn't change those training experiences for anything. She is an avid Rally Obedience competitor and you will see her out with her Sheltie "Odie" every chance she gets. Nancy looks forward to her journey as a Rally Obedience judge and making Rally Obedience an enjoyable and fun experience for both you and your dog.

ISABEL HUTTON

I purchased my first dog, a happy tri sheltie named Laddie, in March. 1988. I did this, after having two major back surgeries and realizing that I would not be able to return to work. Laddie opened up a whole new life for me. I went on to train him to his utility title in Canada, Bermuda and the States. I also campaigned him in 1991 to the #10 obedience dog in Canada. Unfortunately, I lost Laddie to cancer in October 2002. The same year, I lost my second sheltie Dexter also to cancer. I presently own two shelties, an 18 month sable, and a 7 year old bi-black. My blue boy that I lost in October 2008 had obedience titles in Canada, Bermuda and the States, as well as his conformation championship. My biggest thrill was in October 2006 when my bi-black earned his Grand master obedience trial championship and also placed #2 All breed for 2006 and again with very few entries in 2007 was #4 All breed. I met Debbie Desjardine in 1989. We became good friends and traveling companions. Our obedience trials took us to Canada, the States and Bermuda and I have been teaching at Campaign since that time. I received my judging license in May 1997, and I had the honor of receiving the 2001 Pedigree Pal Obedience judge of the year. Any free time I have, I enjoy reading, gardening and traveling with my husband.

PAM WEAVER

I have been involved in dog shows since grade school. I have been active in conformation, obedience, tracking, and now Rally. My Pug bitch "Cuddles" was the foundation bitch for the Weaver / Pamajo Pugs. She also was my first obedience dog, becoming the 2nd, first bitch, UD Pug. Our limited breeding program produced obedience titled Champions, Dog World Award, HIT, multiple group and BIS winners. "Casey", my homebred, Group and Dog World Award winning CH. U.D. was the 3rd UD and first CH UD Pug. I always did my own training and showing. Golden Retrievers entered the family when my son wanted a "big hairy dog" and have been with us for about 30 years. I have been active in several dog clubs in a variety of capacities including Show and Trial Chairperson, was a multiple term board member of the Pug Dog Club of America, past president of DFA of Oregon. I have been judging since I graduated from college.
